1. What was the last film you watched that featured someone with a disability?
 - a. What was the message conveyed about disability through this character?

2. Look up the writers, actors, directors, etc that were involved in making the film, did any of them identify with disability?

3. How would/would you re-write the role (or even dialogue!) to be more inclusive disability messaging? (Maybe its not necessary to re-write it?)

4. Did you have an "Million Dollar Baby" moment that changed your perspective on disability?

5. What action steps can you take to produce more content that is disability pride and positive?
